

ABSTRACT

This paper was written as required to join Bachelor Degree Examination in French Language Department, Faculty of Letters, University of Padjadjaran, Bandung. The title of this paper is Contextual Meaning Analysis of Jeanne Moreau's Initial Career.

This paper discusses supporting factors in career's beginning of an actress named Jeanne Moreau taken from her biography titled Jeanne Moreau written by Jean-Claude Moireau and published by Editions Ramsay, Paris, in 1988.

Applying semantics and syntax theories, this study approves those supporting factors also appears contained meaning field and meaning components, writer's point of view, including information level and redundant in relevant parts of text.

This paper is consisted of five chapters: Introduction, Theories, Research Methodology, Data Analysis and Conclusion.